Many thanks, Koebel. Yes, there is a significant body of international standards on information integrity, many of them with ISO status. There is a high degree of concensus across the records profession, hammered out carefully over the last decade, but the standards are not presently linked to development initiatives.

History. Centralized operations under COINTELPRO officially began in August 1956 with a program designed to "increase factionalism, cause disruption and win defections" inside the Communist Party USA (CPUSA). Tactics included anonymous phone calls, Internal Revenue Service (IRS) audits, and the creation of documents that would divide the American communist organization internally.
